NAMI WALK FUNDRAISER Sunday, September 26 This year, the impact of the pandemic, has been especially difficult for folks with mental health issues. Per the CDC (Center for Disease Control) there has been substantial increases in anxiety, depression, substance use, and suicide. SPR will walk for NAMI around Lake Como beginning at 12:00 noon or after Church. This is really important work, and, even if you can't walk, you can make a donation. This is a great way to give back to our community. You can participate by signing up in the Narthex or donate by contacting Diane Hushman, dmar-tin.hushman@gmail.com or 651-724-8170. Let's do our best to get a substantial group of walkers and...make a difference for good!

ISAIAH Saint Paulites will be voting Nov. 2 to establish a cap on rent increases by a predictable, reasonable percentage of 3% per year to prevent price gouging and excessive spikes in rent. Our city is majority renters, 60% of renters are non-white and ~6% of our non-white student population have experienced homelessness. More renters are struggling with housing cost-burden, instability and homelessness. Rent stabilization is one way to address these issues, the education gap and advance a caring economy across race, class, and ward. Join the campaign this Fall by registering for one or more actions. ## LITURGY OF THE WORD OF GOD

Sit First Reading Wisdom 1:16-2:1, 12-22
It was the LORD who made it known to me, and I knew; then you showed me their evil deeds. But I was like a gentle lamb led to the slaughter. And I did not know it was against me that they devised schemes, saying, "Let us destroy the tree with its fruit, let us cut him off from the land of the living, so that his name will no longer be remembered!" But you, O LORD of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, let me see your retribution upon them, for to you I have committed my cause.

The Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Psalm + Psalm 54
The Schola sings the psalm:

Save me, O God, by your name; in your might, defend my cause. Hear my prayer, O God; give ear to the words of my mouth. For strangers have risen up against me, and the ruthless have sought my life, those who have no regard for God. Behold, God is my helper; it is the Lord who sustains my life. Render evil to those who spy on me; in your faithfulness, destroy them. I will offer you a freewill sacrifice and praise your name, O LORD, for it is good. For you have rescued me from every trouble, and my eye looks down on my enemies.

Second Reading James 3:;13-4:3, 7-8a
Who is wise and understanding among you? Show by your good life that your works are done with gentleness born of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and selfish ambition in your hearts, do not be boastful and false to the truth. Such wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, unspiritual, devilish. For where there is envy and selfish ambition, there will also be disorder and wickedness of every kind. But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without a trace of partiality or hypocrisy. And a harvest of righteousness is sown in peace for those who make peace.4: Those conflicts and disputes among you, where do they come from? Do they not come from your cravings that are at war within you? You want something and do not have it; so you commit murder. And you covet something and cannot obtain it; so you engage in disputes and conflicts. You do not have, because you do not ask. You ask and do not receive, because you ask wrongly, in order to spend what you get on your pleasures. Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Stand Gospel Acclamation
The Cantor leads the acclamation.

Alleluia! Christ suffered for since once for all, the righteous for the unrighteous, in order to bring you to God. Alleluia!

Holy Gospel Mark 9:30-37
The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.
Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus and the disciples went on] and passed through Galilee. He did not want anyone to know it; for he was teaching his disciples, saying to them, "The Son of Man is to be betrayed into human hands, and they will kill him, and three days after being killed, he will rise again." But they did not understand what he was saying and were afraid to ask him. Then they came to Capernaum; and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they were silent, for on the way they had argued with one another who was the greatest. He sat down, called the twelve, and said to them, "Whoever wants to be first must be last of all and servant of all." Then he took a little child and put it among them; and taking it in his arms, he said to them, "Whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes not me but the one who sent me."

This is the Gospel of the Lord! Praise to you, O Christ!

Sit Sermon
